

Asset Management

Achieving Asset Management excellence

Is there a good level of Asset Management knowledge within your business?

Introductory Guidance

EA Technology can provide standard and bespoke Asset Management training courses, which supply an understanding of the fundamental aspects of Asset Management, and how an Asset Management System provides a framework to achieve an organisation's business objectives.

Do you achieve the optimum value from your assets?

Strategic Guidance

EA Technology can advise and assist with the implementation of strategic Asset Management decisions and processes that will help an organisation prioritise and optimise asset investments.

Do your assets help you achieve your business objectives?

Asset Management Guidance

EA Technology can advise, create and assist with the implementation of an organisation's Asset Management System, including supporting documentation that will comply with the requirements of ISO55001.

Are you optimising the life of your assets?

Strategic Asset Management

EA Technology has a large amount of experience in assisting clients, with Strategic Asset Management Investment decisions through Strategic Asset Management advise, and implementation of our Asset Investment Management software.

How can EA Technology support you?

Our Expertise

We have provided assistance to many UK and international organisations to develop their Asset Management Systems to be ISO55000/PAS55 compliant. EA Technology also has experience of assisting organisations convert their PAS55 Asset Management Systems into the newer ISO55000 standard.

Asset Management Proposition

EA Technology's Asset Management and Policy proposition can add value to an organisation through supplying of our expert knowledge of Asset Management and electrical assets. The Asset Management and Policy proposition offers a wide variety of services to support our clients, such as:

- Asset Management System GAP analysis audits
- Review of Asset Management System Implementation plans
- Strategic Asset Management
- Technical advice and support
- Understanding failure modes, rates & characteristics
- Developing and optimising maintenance programmes and process control procedures
- Electrical Safety Rules Review / Audit
- Optimising review techniques with focus on Reliability Centred or Risk Based Maintenance
- Optimising asset data/information to assist decision making
- Specification of an Asset Management System
- Assessment of an organisations Maintenance activities
- Electrical Infrastructure Audits

Global Footprint

EA Technology provides world-leading products, services and support for customers in 90 countries, through our offices in Australia, China, Europe, Singapore, UAE and USA, together with more than 40 distribution partners.

For further information on what the Asset Management and Policy proposition can assist you with, call our Asset Management Team on 0151 347 2392, email asset.management@eatechnology.com or visit www.eatechnology.com.

Safer, Stronger,
Smarter Networks